

Christian Roy

Christian retired from Bell in 2017 after a 36 year career. He started as a summer student technician in 1980 and became a full time manager in 1982 as he graduated from École Polytechnique de Montréal in Electrical Engineering. Christian also holds a M.Sc. from INRS in Telecommunications. During his career at Bell, he held different positions in switch engineering, transport, Technology Development, Planning and Testing. In 2001, he was promoted as VP Network Planning and Engineering, supervising teams in Ontario and Québec. Over his 16 years as a VP, he held different positions in Network and Field Operations.

Throughout his career at Bell, Christian had the opportunity to work with people in Québec and Ontario, but also in the West and the Atlantic provinces. He supported networks for Bell phone services, Internet, ExpressVu, Fibe TV, data centers and also Bell Media.

Christian has been involved on various boards, including as President of the board of the Polytechnique Alumni, and as a board member for 8 years of École Polytechnique de Montréal. Since his retirement, Christian is now a board member of Renaissance Brome Lake, an organization made up of citizens who are devoted to restoring and protecting the lake and its watershed.

Since now 5 years, Christian is co-chairing the organization committee of the Greater Montreal Bell Retirees Golf Tournament.

Christian and his wife Julie enjoy traveling, reading, cooking, skiing, hiking and biking. They spend their time between their house in Montreal and a cottage in the Eastern Townships, supporting their three sons and three grand-children.
