

Karen Lawson

Karen retired from Bell in 2011 after 35 years of service. She held numerous management positions across Bell in various departments and subsidiaries of Bell including Outside Plant, Sales and Service, Product Management and Marketing, Business Development, Managed Services, Advanced Communications Systems, Bell Global Solutions and Bell Integrated Outsourcing Solutions.

While at Bell, Karen chaired the Women at Bell initiative and won an award from Canadian Women in Communications as a Champion of Women's Advancement. Karen has served on numerous boards including Smart Toronto, Smart Women in Technology, Microskills Women's Technology Institute, KINSA (Kids Internet Safety), CBTA (Cdn Business Assoc), Women and Youth in Motion and Glacier Ski Club. Karen joined the Ontario Central Chapter in 2016 and currently serves as the Communications Director.